

SCHEDULE

1 Section 1 of the Continuing Care Fees Regulation, B.C. Reg. 330/97, is amended

(a) by adding the following definition:

“qualified client” means a client aged 19 to 64 years who receives home support services and has earned income; , and

(b) by repealing the definition “remaining annual income” and substituting the following:

“remaining annual income” means an amount calculated using the following formula:

$$RAI = C + S - CT - CI - I$$

where:

“RAI” means remaining annual income;

“C” means the net income of the client as reported on line 236 of the client’s income tax return, for the immediately preceding taxation year;

“S” means the net income of the client’s spouse as reported on line 236 of the spouse’s income tax return, for the immediately preceding taxation year, if

- (a) home support services are provided, or
- (b) the client resides in a facility or a family care home;

“CT” means the total income tax paid by the client and, if the value of S is greater than 0, by the client’s spouse, as reported on line 435 of their income tax returns, for the immediately preceding taxation year;

“CI” means the annual earned income for the client and, if the value of S is greater than 0, for the client’s spouse, to a maximum of

- (a) $15 000 per person if the client is not a qualified client, or
- (b) $25 000 per person if the client is a qualified client;

“I” means the amount of income that corresponds to the client’s family unit size in the following table:

Family Unit Size	Amount of Income
1	$10 284
2	$16 752
3	$19 164
4	$20 880
5	$22 716
